

Thomas Brennan

Thomas Brennan is starting his 26th year with the Cook County Public Guardian's Office. Tom has been in the Adult Guardianship Division for the last 21 years and has been a supervising attorney and Director of the Intake Department for the last 13 years. Tom is on the Public Guardian's Training and Legislation Planning Committees and is a member of the Public Guardian's Office multidisciplinary team that reviews guardianship cases with mental health components. Tom has been Chair and Vice Chair of the Chicago Bar Association Elder Law Committee. Tom has served on the board of Our Community of Illinois which directs community resources to children in DCFS care. Tom is a volunteer and long-time board member of the South-East Asia Center in Uptown. Tom has given many presentations and lectures including trainings at the Illinois Institute of Continuing Legal Education (IICLE), the Chicago Bar Association, John Marshall Law School, DePaul University College of Law, the City of Chicago, Illinois Department on Aging-Adult Protective Services, Loyola University School of Medicine, and numerous other medical institutions and care facilities.