

Colleen Ceh Becvar is the owner of Trinity Advocacy Group, LLC, an advocacy organization offering care management, elder mediation, professional guardianship and fiduciary services to vulnerable adults. Colleen holds a master's degree in gerontology from the University of Indianapolis and is a Certified Geriatric Care Manager through the National Academy of Certified Care Managers. She also completed Mediation Skills Training through Northwestern University. Colleen is a former appointed delegate to the White House Conference on Aging and a former adjunct professor at Aurora University. Colleen's successful career advocating for older adults includes published research on elder abuse and neglect and numerous awards for innovation and leadership in the aging network. Colleen is a frequent presenter on numerous topics relating to disabilities and aging. Her expertise provides clients and families with the resources and support they need to navigate through the inevitable challenges that can accompany aging, disability, or caring for a loved one.