

Stacy Berk

Stacy Berk is a Supervising Attorney and Director of Training for the Cook County Public Guardian's Adult Guardianship Division. Stacy has worked for the Public Guardian since 1994. Stacy initially started working as an attorney and guardian ad litem (GAL) for abused and neglected children in the Public Guardian's Juvenile Division. Stacy transferred to the Adult Guardianship Division in 1999. Stacy attended Northwestern University, where she majored in Spanish, and she spent her junior year studying at the University of Seville in Spain. Stacy attended DePaul University College of Law, after taking a year off to return to Seville and teach English. Stacy currently maintains a caseload of adults under guardianship, and she trains and supervises the newest attorneys in the Adult Guardianship Division. Stacy also coordinates continuing legal education (CLE) trainings and other non-legal trainings for attorneys and other staff in the Adult Guardianship Division. Stacy is married and has one daughter. Stacy is an avid reader and loves to travel.
